

Staff Reader of the Month

One of October Staff Readers of the Month is Mr. Falzoi. He is a 5th Grade teacher at B.T. Read on to find out more about this avid reader!!

What book did you read most recently?

Convict Conditioning, Wonder, Harry Potter - The Cursed Child

Do you have a favourite genre? If so, why is it your favourite?

My favourite genre is narrative non-fiction because it teaches me about interests of mine, and I love trying to be the best that I can possibly be. I also like biographies on my favourite sports heroes because it's interesting to see the lives they live.

What book "hooked" you into reading as a kid? If you can, explain why this book had such a positive reading effect on you.

Hmmmm. Good question. Back in grade 2, I used to love Goosebumps by R.L. Stine, anything Roald Dahl and Stuart Little. I liked the spookiness of Goosebumps, Roald Dahl's characters always engaged me (especially James from 'James and the Giant Peach' and Stuart Little was the man...well mouse:)

Why do you enjoy reading?

I enjoy reading because it is relaxing and also because with non-fiction books, I feel like I gain so much knowledge each time I read it which will allow me to be a better version of myself and hopefully inspire others with my new knowledge.

Do you have a favourite place to read? If so, where is it and why do you enjoying reading there?

I have a few. The first would be at Jones Beach in my hometown of St. Catharines. I like it there because it's a quiet place, and I'm usually the only one there by the water. I enjoy the sound of the waves as I read. I also like to read on my couch or sprawled out on my bed because it's comfortable.

What do you love about the BT Library?

I love the friendliness of the Librarian:). However, she should become a Bills fan!

If you were stranded on a desert island and could bring only 1 book, what would it be and why?

Wow, tough question Miss Westbury. Although I love non-fiction books, I have trouble reading them multiple times, so I would have to say Wonder by R.J. Palacio. I would choose Wonder because it has a way of touching every emotion. It has funny parts, serious parts, sad parts, happy parts, and my favourite, inspiring parts. I'm not going to go into detail because everyone should read it at some point. It's definitely my favourite fiction book!
